

Christmas is in December

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

Santa Claus wears black boots

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

Holly has red berries

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

We eat mince pies at Christmas

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

Santa Claus has a black beard

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

We dress up as witches at Christmas

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

Most people eat robins for Christmas dinner

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

Rudolph had a very shiny ear

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

Father Christmas is another word for Santa

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

People send cards to friends at Christmas

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

You sometimes see a star at the top of the Christmas tree

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

Tinsel is a Christmas decoration

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

It always snows on Christmas Day

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

Christmas Day is always on a Sunday

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

The reindeer pull the snowmobile for Santa

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

The day before Christmas is New Year's Eve

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

We sing carols at Christmas

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

Santa Claus comes when children are asleep

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

We go to school on Christmas Day

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

Santa takes back all the toys after Christmas

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

These are

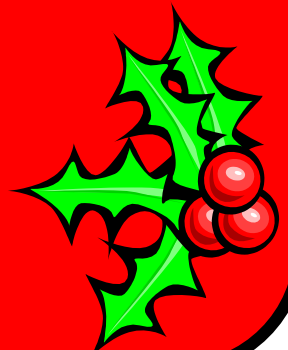

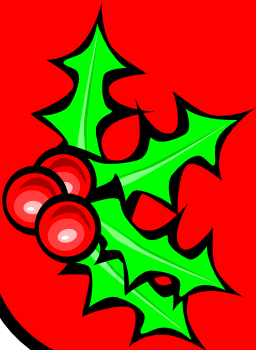

True

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie

These are

False

© Nollaig Shona www.nollaigshona.ie